

THE EUROPEAN UNION'S CROSS BORDER
COOPERATION PROGRAM

Projekt:
CROSS BORDER FIRESHIELD

Consultative meeting at the Fire Department, Cerrik Municipality

The cross-border project "Fireshield" with a focus on environmental protection brought us together today with representatives of Caritas Albania and with the staff of the Fire Department in Cerrik Municipality.

As part of the partners in the project, the specialists of the Cërrik Municipality talked with the head of this sector about the project, upcoming activities, medium and long-term plans of the project, challenges, support in community activities and the possibilities of intervention in strengthening the capacities of this sector.

During the conversation, the respective staffs also expressed their opinions and were ready for their progress and intervention in the project and beyond.
